Here's the tribal summary. I didn't fully address Lauren's point to make it more a "meeting summary" since I felt like for tribes having a pretty detailed record of the back and forth for not trying to speak on behalf of commenters and for the general information it provides is important (and I wasn't sure how to summarize the pretty detailed feedback). However, I did try and reorganize some to make the two more similar and to put questions relevant to the topical area.
